

The Coastal Discovery Museum & Gullah Heritage Trail Tours Invite You to “A Summer Afternoon Reading & Conversation” with Author Katherine Butler Jones

at the Coastal Discovery Museum located at 70 Honey Horn, Hilton Head Island, S.C.

Thursday, July 9, 2014 4p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Join us for an evening with Dr. Jones as she shares excerpts from her recent publication, “Deeper Roots: An American Odyssey,” describing her family heritage and discoveries along her path of exploring her roots. Her adventures in New York, Jamaica, Africa, and Europe highlight two deep-rooted beliefs – the importance of knowing one’s history and that true learning is often achieved through a connection to the larger world.

From the hallways of 409 Edgecombe venue in Harlem, her childhood home where her neighbors included future Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall and social scientist and civil rights activist W.E.B. Du Bois, to the halls of academia and the front lines of the civil rights movement, Butler Jones’ life is a timeless journey of curiosity, discovery and enlightenment.

Dr. Katherine Butler has been an educator, activist and writer in the Boston, Massachusetts region for more than fifty years and currently lives in Newton. For the past three decades, she and her family have spent vacations on Hilton Head Island.

EVENT IS FREE. Contact Emma Campbell at 843-681-5836; eesjc@aol.com or Natalie Hefter at (843) 689-6767, ext. 225 or www.coastaldiscovery.org for more information.